

RIYADH SCHOOLS - HITTIN

STUDENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Student Rights

- A broad-based quality curriculum that, when coupled with quality teaching, meets the differentiated and developmental needs of each student.
- All students have a right to receive instruction that encourages and reinforces the qualities of honesty, integrity, compassion, sincerity, and hard work that are central to the Saudi culture and its Islamic identity.
- Students have a right to a safe and non-abusive environment that fosters learning and contributes to beneficial relationships with all members of the Riyadh Schools' community.
- Students are entitled to individual constructive feedback that takes into consideration their strengths, growth areas, and success, whilst also developing improvement strategies.
- When appropriate, students have a right to intervention & extension programs, and students are expected to support these programs as they are in their best interest.

Student Responsibilities

- Be on time for all classes, student assemblies, and scheduled appointments.
- Arrive at school well-rested and prepared to actively engage in all classes and activities.
- Complete and submit all assignments on time.
- Adhere to and obey all Riyadh Schools' guidelines and regulations governing behavior in and out of the classroom.
- As a part of the learning process, listen and respond positively, courteously, and respectfully to constructive feedback, and use it to improve learning.
- Always strive to do your best to achieve academic excellence.
- Show care, courtesy, respect, and concern for all members of Riyadh Schools' community.
- Help to keep a safe and positive school environment for all.
